

Ghent

SC-11900~SC-11911

Our Ghent fixtures are based in rectangular and square shapes just bent and welded into unified structures. They feature large areas of light-emitting diffuser panels that are framed by simple vertical and horizontal flats. The uniformity of these designs lies in their overall modesty. Making Ghent fixtures is a conservative effort to produce the most amount of light from areas that are essential to basic design. It is a pleasure to build fixtures this lean and yet so bright. Ghent will look good in a variety of fresh architectural areas. They come in diverse colors and acylics. And our modular LED is right!
